Most merciful God,

we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves, especially our neighbors of color. We have valued property over people. You created us in divine likeness, diverse and beautiful, but too often we fail to recognize your image in all. You created us in divine freedom, but too often we fail to advocate for your justice for all. You created us to tend and share as a community, but too often we fail to create that community which includes all, and gives to all equal access to your abundant life. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.
